

The Giddings Star

October 14, 1940

DUBE—SPACEK NUPTIALS SOLEMNICED AT DIME BOX

In a beautiful ceremony at the Ev. Lutheran Church at Dime Box, Miss Viola Dube became the bride of Dalvin Spacek, Sunday at 4:30 P. M. Miss Dube is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben A. Dube, and Mr. Spacek is the son of Mrs. Will Spacek. The Rev. George W. Kautz of Lexington performed the double ring ceremony, Mrs. Kautz played the wedding music.

Miss Dube, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin made with full skirt. Her bodice was cut with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves that extended into a point over the hand. The only trimming was a row of self-covered burtons down the back of the bodice. Her veil of illusion, trimmed in lace, was caught to the head by a tiara of seed pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums and lace fern tied with white satin ribbon.

Miss Rosa Lee Pitts, her maid of honor, wore a gown of blue water silk taffeta made similar to the bride's. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums and fern tied with dusty rose satin ribbon.

The little flower girls Josephine and Rubie Dube, nieces of the bride, were dressed in floor length blue taffeta frocks with trimming of pink velvet ribbon.

The bride's brother Alvin Dube served the groom as best man. Ushers were Frank Kasak of San Antonio and Herbert Baron of Dime Box.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, after which a wedding supper was served. After a wedding trip the couple will make their home in Giddings.