

The Giddings Star

January 26, 1956

Schneider-Spaeter
Vows Spoken Jan. 23

Miss Gladys Marie Schneider, daughter of Mrs. Ella and the late W. E. Schneider of Giddings and William W. Spaeter, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Spaeter of Los Angeles, California, were united in marriage Monday, Jan. 23 at 1 p. m. in the home of the bride's mother, the Rev. Robert Studtmann performed the ceremony.

The bride was attired in a navy blue suit with a corsage of white rose buds. Her only attendant was her cousin, Miss Margaret Birkmann of Houston. The groom was attended by his father.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held for close relatives after which the bride and groom left for their wedding trip to Las Vegas, Nevada.

Mrs. Spaeter, a graduate of Giddings High School and University of Texas School of Nursing entered the navy nurse corps as ensign during World War II. When war in Europe ended she entered Southwestern University, Georgetown where she received her BA degree. Since her graduation, Mrs. Spaeter had been with the M. D. Anderson Cancer Research where she served as production editor for M. D. Anderson Hospital publications. It was during this time that Mrs. Spaeter wrote the "Book of Health."

Mr. Spaeter, a graduate of the University of Southern Cal., is coach and P. E. teacher at the University High School at Los Angeles where the couple will make their home.