SPITZENBERGER - LEHMANN

Miss Leona Lehmann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lehmann of the New Prospect community, and Mr. Paul Spitzzenberger of Hamilton, were united in marriage in the Martin Luther church, Giddings, with Rev. Mueller officiating the nuptial ceremonies.

The immediate relatives of the bride and groom were the only attendants. Misses Hilda and Alma Lehmann, sisters of the bride were bridesmaids, accompanied by John and Arthur Spitzzenberger, brothers of the groom.

The loveliness of the church with the lighted candelabra and the soft melody of the wedding march played by Miss Anna Lora Mueller deeply touched the hearts of the ones present as the bridal procession entered the church. The bride's trousseau consisted of a light blue embossed taffeta gown, wearing gold accessories and a touch of white orange blossoms in her hair, and carrying a bouquet of white carnations with white and silver streamers. The groom wore an all-wool navy suit. The bridesmaids were dressed alike in pink net trimmed with pink satin ribbon.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents immediately after the ceremonies. A table decorated with flowers contrasted a white wedding cake with a miniature couple at its center and with many delicious foods surrounded the cake was enjoyed by the guests. Following the supper, the party motored to the Prospect Hall where the bride and groom were met by a host of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Spitzzenberger left for a honeymoon trip to New Orleans and a visit with the bride's sister in Grapeland, Miss. They will make their home with Mr. John Spitzzenberger, Sr. for the summer months. This fall they will make their home in Lee County where the groom is employed as school teacher.

Many friends join to wish Mr. and Mrs. Paul Spitzzenberger much success and a long and happy married life.
