

MRS. HENRY JOE STORCH

Miss Ruby Kiesling Weds In Lutheran Ceremony Here

The St. Paul Lutheran Church was the scene Saturday evening when Miss Ruby Lorene Kiesling of Burkburnett became the bride of Henry Joe Storch of Levelland. Rev. J. A. Birnbaum, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is a sister of A. H. Kiesling of Burkburnett and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Storch of Portales, N. M.

The nuptial scene was decorated with baskets of pink gladioli with pink candles in candelabra, which were entwined with white silk rope and greenery.

Mrs. Clarence Graf and Mrs. Lawrence McCaleb furnished the nuptial music.

The Bride's Gown

Given in marriage by her brother, the bride was attired in a floor length gown of white net over satin, designed with a scalloped neckline and defined with tiny satin buttons down the back. Short net sleeves tapered to petal points over her hands.

From a pearl encrusted coronet fell the fingertip veil of bridal illusion, bordered with a wide band of lace. The bride carried a colonial bouquet of white split carnations and red rose buds. Her only jewelry was a triple strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. A. H. Kiesling, sister-in-law of the bride, attended as matron of honor. Her gown was of chartruese taffeta and she carried a colonial bouquet of bronze mums with bronze ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Herbert Dickerson of Arlington and Mrs. Bill Horne of Levelland. Mrs. Dickerson wore a brown taffeta gown and carried blue carnations and Mrs. Horne wore a rose gown and carried pink carnations.

Other Attendants

Emil Storch of Portales, N. M., and Sherrill Horne of Levelland lighted the candles prior to the ceremony.

Edith Kaye Schumann of Vernon was the flower girl and Randy Schoppa of Aiken carried the rings.

Preceding the bride, Phyllis Kiesling and Darrell Schaeffner, walked down the aisle, dressed identical to the bride and groom.

Alfred Storch of Levelland served as best man. Groomsmen were E. L. Kiesling of Vernon, Emil Storch of Portales, N. M., and Sherrill Horne of Levelland.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. Hattie Bishop, was attired in a light blue dress and wore a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Storch selected a dusty rose crepe dress and also wore a white carnation corsage.

Reception Held

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Wilbarger Memorial Auditorium.

The bride's table was laid with a full-gathered pink organdy cloth and skirt. At either end of the table was an arrangement of pink flowers. Centering the table was the three-tiered wedding cake, decorated in bridal white and topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Mrs. Paul Esch, Mrs. Floyd Kiesling and Miss Bernell Pool assisted at the serving table. Mrs. Bill Horne presided at the register book.

For the wedding trip to West Texas and New Mexico, Mrs. Storch chose a two-piece suit of brown wool with brown accessories.

Mrs. Storch was receptionist and nurse for several Vernon doctors.

To Live in Levelland

The couple plans to reside in Levelland, where the groom is engaged in farming.

A rehearsal dinner was held Friday evening at the Alamo Restaurant for members of the wedding party.
