WEIKAL — STORK NUPTIALS
SOLEMNIZED AT KINGMAN, KAN.

Marriage vows for Miss Charlen Weikal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weikal of Kingman, Kansas, and Chester Stork of Giddings, son of Mr and Mrs Henry Stork were solemnized at a quiet ceremony at the Baptist church parsonage at Kingman Kansas Saturday evening, June 21. Rev. Francis B. Dodson, pastor of the Baptist church, officiated at the single ring ceremony. Only the members of the immediate family of the bride were present.

Mrs. Charles Callan of El Dorado, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor, and Mr. Callan served Mr. Stork as best man.

For her marriage the bride chose a tailored dress of white sharkskin trimmed with gold military buttons. She wore a white turban and white accessories.

Mrs. Callan wore a frock of blue printed crepe, a large blue hat and blue accessories.

The bride, who has a wide circle of friends in Kingman, attended the Kingman schools and following her graduation in 1937 attended Ottawa University one year. She has been a student at the Central Baptist Theological Seminary at Kansas City, Mo. the past year.

Chester Stork attended the Giddings High School and following his graduation, attended Mary Hardin-Baylor college at Belton, Texas, and Baylor University at Waco. He also attended the Central Baptist Theological Seminary at Kansas City last year.

Mr. Stork left Tuesday evening for Belton, where he will attend summer school at Mary Hardin-Baylor. Mrs. Stork will spend the summer at Kingman and come to Texas in the early fall.
