Miss Streit, Mr. Schoppa Marry Thursday Evening

Miss Lillian Streit and Paul Schoppa, Jr., were united in marriage Thursday evening by the Rev. E. R. Rathgeber at the Zion Lutheran Church. Lockett.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Streit and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schoppa, Sr.

Wedding bands were exchanged before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli and lighted tapers in tall, branched candelabra. Two tall baskets of gladioli were at either side of the choir loft entrance. Lighted tapers were used to mark the center aisle.

Mr. Streit's daughter in marriage. For her wedding, the bride chose a gown fashioned with a lace bodice, long lace sleeves and a scrolled neckline. The satin skirt had insets of lace panels and fell into a long train. The finger tip veil, was attached to a lace head dress and lined with tiny beaded pearls.

On her white satin covered prayer book, she carried a white orchid surrounded with stephanotis. Her lace handkerchief came from Germany and the diamond ring was borrowed from Miss Patsy Cutbirth. She also wore a blue garter and a sixpence in her shoe for luck.

Mrs. Karl A. Streit was her sister-in-law's matron of honor. She wore a gown of yellow net over taffeta. The drop shoulder neckline was set with a wide bertha collar. She wore a pearl choker. At the waist was a full gathered sash over a full gathered skirt. Her bouquet of gushia gladioli was outlined with a green satin fan.

Miss Lydia Streit of Vernon and Miss Hattie Ann Phillips of Munday were the bridesmaids.

They were identically dressed in dresses of pale green net over pale green taffeta and fashioned similarly to the dress worn by the matron of honor. They carried matching bouquets.

Freddie Streit and Cynthia Kieschnick lighted the candles. Miss Kieschnick's dress was a pale green fashioned like the bridesmaids'.

Robert Lee Rummel was the groom's best man. Hubert Noack and Curtis Schoppa were the groomsmen. Karl A. Streit and Hubert Jansa were the ushers.

E. J. Diers was the organist and Miss Patsy Cutbirth of Wichita Falls was the vocalist. Before the ceremony, Miss Cutbirth sang, "Because" and "The Lord is My Shepherd." Following the ceremony she sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. Diers played the traditional "Wedding March" by Wagner as the wedding party entered the church. During the ceremony he played "Under the Rose Arbor," and "Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the recessional.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Streit wore a pink crepe dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias. Mrs. Schoppa, the groom's mother, wore a green crepe dress with a gardenia corsage.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the parish hall. The bride's table, covered with a cutwork linen cloth, was centered with a low arrangement of gladioli. The cake, in the shape of a large Bible, was inscribed with "Lil and Paul Jr." on one page and "I Thee Wed" on the other. Yellow and green mints in the shape of wedding bells were also served. Punch was served from a crystal bowl at the other end of the table. Tall baskets of gladioli and palms were used to decorate the parish hall.

Members of the house party were Miss Luan Taylor, Miss Gertrude Haseloff, Miss Bennie Lou Hopkins, Miss LaNelle Colthorpe and Miss Helen Higgins. Miss Beryle Jean Streit was at the guest book.

For their wedding trip to Colorado, Mrs. Schoppa wore a gray and white suit with black velvet accessories.

Following the wedding trip, the couple plan to make their home in Wichita Falls.

Mr. Schoppa is a senior at Midwestern University. He is a 1946 graduate of Five-in-One High School and has attended Texas Technological College and Midwestern University.

At Midwestern he is a member of the Cowhand Club, class favorite and president of the student body organization.

Mrs. Schoppa is a 1948 graduate of Five-in-One High School and has attended Midwestern University for two years. At Midwestern, she was secretary of the sophomore class, a member of the Secretarial Science Club and class favorite for two years.

Out-of-town guests present for the wedding were Joe Borden, Gene Boren, Miss Joyce Stowe, Miss Patsy Cutbirth of Wichita Falls, Miss LaNelle Colthorpe of Hamlin, Miss Luan Taylor and Miss Helen Higgins of Seymour.
