Married: Miss Minnie Stuessy was married yesterday at 3 P. M. to Mr. George Polster of Marlin at the home of the bride's brother Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Stuessy. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Vetter of the Grassyville Methodist church. The happy couple will visit several days among relatives at Grassyville and then go to the groom's home on a farm near Marlin. Miss Stuessy is a popular young lady in the community where she has lived since childhood and her friends are numerous. The groom is a thrifty young man and is well liked by those who know him.

The News wishes them the best of happiness and prosperity.
