

The Giddings Star

March 17, 1955

With Tea Saturday

Miss Eola Nell Tate, whose marriage will take place March 26, was honored with a tea Saturday, March 12 at the home of Mrs. Milton Archer with Mrs. Archer and Mrs. Don Slocomb as co-hostesses.

Arrangements of spring flowers were used throughout the reception rooms. The tea table, laid with a yellow net cloth over taffeta, was centered with a bride's bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. White tapers in silver candelabra completed the centerpiece. All appointments were in silver. Presiding at the tea service were Mesdames Edith Gilroy and Fourest Bouchier of Taylor.

Registering the guests were Mrs. Jimmy Throckmorton and Miss Joyce Ann Gruetzner. Others in the house party were Mrs. Charles Tate, Miss Miriam Tate, Mrs. M. Y. Tate, mother of the bride-to-be, and Mrs. Lena Phillips, grandmother of the bride-to-be.

Seventy-five guests were registered during the afternoon.