

BOUCHIER—TATE

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized at 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, July 6, 1920, at the Baptist church when Miss Eola Garwood Tate became the bride of Forrest Lee Bouchier.

Just before the ceremony Miss Louise York, accompanied by Mrs. J. Will Tate on the piano and Miss Irma Hillsman on the violin, sang "I Love Thee". The bride and groom, preceded by the ushers, Messrs. Howard Heck and Milton York, entered to the strains of Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus". They were met at the altar by Rev. W. W. Burr, who, using the ring ceremony, spoke the words which made them one. Throughout the ceremony "Cupid's Garden" was softly played.

The bride was charming in a black picture hat and a Lucile Model of midnight blue taffeta trimmed in cut steel beads. She carried a shower bouquet of dahlias and fern.

Mr. Bouchier, who was in the medical department of the Navy, served his country thru the duration of the war. At present he is connected with the A. H. Fitzgerald Drug Co. of Gonzales.

Miss Tate is the only daughter of Judge and Mrs. J. H. Tate. She is a graduate of the Giddings High School and after attending the College of Industrial Arts at Denton, became a teacher in the public school of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Bouchier left immediately after the ceremony and will be at home to their friends after July 16, at Gonzales, Texas.
