Miss Miriam Tate, Bride-Elect of Neal Namken, Honored at Tea-Shower Saturday

Saturday evening, Aug. 6, at the home of Mrs. Milton Archer, Mrs. Archer and Mrs. Don B. Slocomb were hostesses to a shower-tea honoring Miss Miriam Tate, bride-elect of Neal Namken.

The refreshment table was covered with a yellow net cloth with crystal appointments and a centerpiece of white asters.

In the house party were Misses Rose Marie Richter, Jane Winkler, and Elsie Bob Fariss. Mrs. Royce Namken presided at the punch bowl.

The gifts were displayed throughout the house. Seventy-five guests called during the evening.

In the receiving line were Miss Miriam Tate, Mrs. M. Y. Tate, and Mrs. Rudy Namken.

Among those present were Mrs. Lena Phillips of Conroe, grandmother of the bride-to-be, and Mrs. C. A. Falke of Warda, grandmother of the groom-to-be.
