Wilson — Teague Vows Exchanged

Miss Carmen Ruth Wilson and Melvin D. Teague exchanged marriage vows in a ceremony at the First Baptist Church on Aug. 7 with the Rev. H. L. McLerran officiating.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli, mums, and potted palms.

Mrs. R. B. Burns, organist, presented the wedding music and Miss Janice Cowan sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a ballerina length dress of white nylon designed with a stand-up collar and tiny buttons down the front of the bodice. Her shoulder length veil was attached to a lace cap trimmed with rhinestones and pearls. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

Mrs. John R. Lanier served the bride as matron-of-honor. She was attired in a ballerina length dress of pink organdy and carried a bouquet of blue carnations which matched her blue picture hat.

Bridesmaids were Misses Mary Sue Burns and Lavon Hill. They wore ballerina length dresses of blue organdy with matching picture hats and carried bouquets of pink carnations.

John R. Lanier was best man. Groomsmen were Roland Teague and Bill Droemer. Gary Cowan, Kenneth Cowan, and Calvin Namken served as ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the educational building of the church. Assisting in the house party were Misses Joyce Bell and Elaine Hoffman who served the wedding cake and punch. Mrs. Roland Teague presided at the bride's register.

The mother of the bride wore a nylon print dress with navy accessories and white carnation corsage.

The groom's mother wore a navy blue dress trimmed in white with white carnation corsage.

For travel the bride wore a dress of light blue cotton with white accessories.

Following the wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Teague will be at home in Brenham.
