More on Volklers-Fischer Wedding Rites

Additional information was given The Star this week concerning the article published last week on the Volklers-Fischer wedding which was performed at the Immanuel Lutheran Church on March 5.

The Star is happy to publish this additional information at this time.

The altar was decorated with an arrangement of white gladioli and stock and flanked with floor baskets of gladioli and stock. Mrs. Milton Schroeder sang "The Wedding Prayer" and the "23rd Psalm".

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Adele Volklers and the late Henry D. Volklers, graduated from Giddings High School and is now employed by the L.C.R.E.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Volklers chose a Navy Blue crepe, two piece dress with matching accessories. The mother of the bridegroom wore navy blue gabardine suit also with matching accessories. Their corsages were of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Firemen's Hall. The bride's table was decorated with an arrangement of white flowers and lighted with tall white tapers. The three tiered cake was embossed with white roses and topped with miniature bride and groom. The bride's bouquet, placed on the table, completed the table decoration.

In the house party were Misses Jane McIntosh, Eunice McKeown, Jeanette Wasko, Ruth Droemer, and Mary Ann Fischer. The bride's traveling ensemble was a navy blue suit of sheer wool shantung with navy accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid. Mr. and Mrs. Fischer spent their honeymoon visiting the coast.
