

The Giddings Star
August 14, 1942

SHOWER HONORING
RECENT BRIDE

Mrs. Adolph Volkers was named honoree at a miscellaneous shower Wednesday evening at the community hall with Mrs. Fred Weiser, Mrs. Mamie Preuss, Mrs. M. G. Kurio, Mrs. Claud McIntosh, and Mrs. M. L. Meitzen as hostesses

A color scheme of pink and blue featured pink rosebuds, Queen's wreath blue rainbow asters and lace fern in the decorations. The hostesses wore pink and blue floor length frocks with harmonizing corsages. Mrs. E. L. McCleskey played the traditional wedding march as the honoree appeared dressed in brown alpaca with corsage of marigolds.

Following the program of piano selections by Mrs. McCleskey, Gypsy Kelly, dressed becomingly in blue net over taffeta, gave Elizabeth Browning's "How Do I Love You" with an encore. The gifts were presented in a hamper decorated in pink and blue. The hostesses served punch from either end of the lace covered table centered with an arrangement of pink rosebuds, blue rainbow asters, Queen's wreath and fern, white tapers burning near the center of the table. A variety of sandwiches and Angel food cake was served. Favors were pink and blue baskets holding mints. Mrs. Keaghy presided at the bride's book of pink satin.

The guest list included Mrs. Adolph

Volkers, Mesdames Roland Laake, Ben A. Fischer, Carl Berger, H. D. Volkers, Pete Volkers, G. L. Kelly, Henry Nerger, Lyle Groth, E. L. McCleskey, S. W. White, Walter G Tillmanns, A. E. Fischer, Eddie Hoffman, J S. Hillsman, Fred McKeown, Ted Osthoff, W. E. Hoffman, Wm. Mueller, L. M. Preuss, Jr., Paul Mutschink, C. M Bishop, W L. Pratho, Henry Hamff, A. J. Bolsins, Sam Heyser, Walter Matthijetz, W. O. Keaghey, C. McIntosh, M. G. Kurio, M L Meitzen, Fred Weiser, Mamie Preuss, Misses Emily Schroeder Gypsey Kelly, Dorothy Strauss, Dolores Heyser