The Giddings Star

June 23, 1955

Weishuhn -- Lehmann Vows Are Exchanged In La Grange Rites on Sunday, June 12

The St. Paul Lutheran Church in La Grange was the scene of Fred J. Wieder of Alvin, aunt of the marriage of Miss Marilyn the bride, wore a bare top floor Janice Weishuhn, daughter of length formal of pink emproid-Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Weishuhn, ered organdy. Frilly ruching and Edward Adolph Lehmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Lehmann of Carmine, Sunday, jacket of matching organdy. The June 12, at four o'clock, in the bouffant skirt consisted of three afternoon. Rev. H. T. Flach- large embroidered ruffles. Her meier performed the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with white king asters and gladioli. Mrs. Elvis Meiners, organist, played nuntial music preceding the wedding and the traditional wedding marches. Mrs. Wilbert Jaster, soloist, sang "Because" and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a chapel lenght, princess line gown of nylon tulle over candlelight satin. The full graceful skirt was ascented with Chantilly lace medallions embroidered with tiny seed pearls and fridescent sequins. The bodice of Chantilly lace featured a neckline accented with seed pearls and sequins. The lace sleeves came to a point over her hands and were fastened with tiny covered buttons. Her finger tip veil was held by a leaf designed bandeau of lace embroidered with seed pearls was a strand of pearls with matching earrings, gift of the groom, She carried a white Bible coveread with an orchid and white

The matron of honor, Mrs. topped the molded Empire bodice. She wore a tiny shrug headdress was a tiny half hat of matching daisies. She carried a fan shaped bouquet of blue feather plumes and carnations.

The bridesmaids, Misses Loretta Ebner, Junell Pietsch and Waldine Schlabach, wore blue embroidered organdy dresses made identical to that of the matron of honor. They also wore half hats of matching daisies and carried fan shaped bouquets of pink feather plumes and carnations.

The flower girl, Miss Judy Lehmann, cousin of the groom, wore a white embroidered organdy dress made similar to that of the other attendants. She carried a white satin basket of rose petals which she scattered in the path of the bride. The ring bearer, Glen Wieder, cousin of the bride, carried the rings on a heart shaped white satin pillow.

Raymond Lehmann, brother of the groom, served as best man and the groomsmen were Herand sequins. Her only ornament man Schoenemann, Herbert Roemer Jr. and Glenroy Ebner. Head usher was Kenneth Lehmann, brother of the groom. Mrs. Raymond Lehmann registered the guests.

prive a minuter wore a navy lace dress with light blue accessories and a pink carnationcorsage. The groom's mothed also wore navy lace with white accessories and a pink carnation

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Fair Pavilion with a dinner consisting of barbecue and all the trimmings served to approximately 265 guests. The bridal table was overlaid with a hand crocheted cloth. The bride's bouquet and those of the attendants decorated tion topped with sugar rose carrying out the colors of the wedding. The cake was topped with was served by Mrs. Kenneth ming. Lehmann and Mrs. Raymond The Lehmann . Music throughout the reception was provided by the Village Boys.

For the wedding trip to inter- for the past two years.

was a three tiered white confect Ozark Mountains, the bride choose a light blue linen sheath dre with pink accessories. The couple will make their home at an arch-way under which stood Route 1, Carmine, where the a miniature bride and groom. It groom is engaged in dairy far-

The bride is a graduate of the La Grange High School and has been employd by the local State Department of Public Welfare