

SGT. LLOYD E. BOETTCHER, son of Edwin Boettcher of Lincoln, receives the Good Conduct Medal at a special review held at Air Material Command, Tachikawa, Japan.

★ ★ ★

Sgt. Boettcher Gets Good Conduct Medal

Sgt. Lloyd E. Boettcher, son of Edwin Boettcher of Lincoln, received the Good Conduct Medal Saturday, May 27, at a special review of airmen held at the Far East Air Material Command, Tachikawa, Japan.

The award was presented to Sgt. Boettcher for his "exemplary behavior, fidelity, and efficiency" during the period July 31, 1946, to July 30, 1949, by Brig. Gen. John P. Doyle, Commanding General at FEAMCOM.

Sgt. Boettcher, who has been with the Far East Air Forces in Japan since December, 1946, is serving with the Installations Squadron at this Command, which serves as maintenance and supply depot for aircraft and Air Force installations throughout Japan.