

The Giddings News

September 4, 1942

DIME BOX

Frankie Riske left Wednesday to resume his work as a sailor. He was glad to have been home and have a visit with home folks and friends, having never been away for any length of time before. He is looking well and the navy life seems to agree with him.