

The Giddings Star

July 2, 1953

Stationed In Korea

STAFF SGT. LEROY WIESE

Leroy Wiese writes home and asks his mother and father to send some of his old clothes over to Korea, that he had a Korean man working under him and that he hardly had any clothes to wear, and that he would appreciate anything. Those people over there were naked and starving. Children are begging and crying for something to eat.

His mother packed a box of his clothes and sent it to Leroy. It took about 30 days to get there. He gave this box of clothes to Kim. Leroy wrote that Kim was speechless, his lips moved but he couldn't make a sound.

Leroy has 7 months overseas duty, and said he would be glad when he could come back to good old Giddings, there is no better place.