

Curtis Zoch Honor Guest

Parents Fete Son At Farewell Party

LEXINGTON, March 11.—(Sp)—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zoch entertained with a farewell party Friday night honoring their son, Curtis, who is to go into service. Decorations of flags and cut flowers in the national colors featured a patriotic motif.

Miss Marie Hillegeist and Miss Ruth Carter, teachers of Lexington school, had charge of the entertainment for the evening and directed games and contests. Each guest wrote a wish and dropped it in a miniature well which will not be opened until honoree is at his assigned place.

The guests included high school students who were: Billy Mae Pierce, Ruth Knippa, Leona Patschke, Carrie Belle Nettles, Frankie Morris, Doris Knippa, Ethel Mae Raachke, Estline Rodgers, Audrey Rodgers, La Rue Devillig, Jennie Beth Crim, Hazel Jean Curlee, Henrietta Bailey, Joycelyn Brinkman, Ruth Zoch, Ted Morris, Fred Raachke, Fred Frank and Robert Arhendi, Ernest Quinney, Searcy Dean Quinney, William Snow, Billy Fricke, George Weiser, Harry Young, Harold Spear, Floyd Warren, Sanny Thompson, James Hillman, George Thannish, Rodney Brewer and Curtis Zoch. Other guests were Misses Ruth Carter and Marie Hillegeist, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zoch, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hefington, Miss Ruby Speers of Lubbock and A-C Milbert Speers of Michigan.

Curtis is an honor student of the Lexington high school and has been an outstanding football player.
