

Giddings, Texas

15 March 1938

Valued Volksblatt!

Today I will send in something for the Volksblatt, since on March 13 I received a telegram from Weimar that my brother, Christoph Gabler, died on March 11. The burial took place on Sunday afternoon (Mar. 13), but I was not able to attend.

In the year 1929, during the last week of November, he suffered a stroke and was bedridden since that time. He reached the age of 88 years and 10 months.

Finally, greetings,

Marie Noack

Translated by Richard Carl Noack (2018)