

Dina Jo Schultz Christened at Carmine

Dina Jo Schultz, infant daughter of M/Sgt. and Mrs. Fred G. Schultz, was christened at the Carmine Martin Luther Church at 10 a. m. Sunday, Nov. 26, with the Rev. A. T. Kluge performing the impressive ceremony before a large gathering of friends and relatives of the family.

Sponsoring as god-parents of the the baby were Mrs. Leroy Levien, Mrs. Max G. Bathe, Charles Bathe, and Edmund Schultz.

Old fashioned country hospitality and conviviality featured the gay reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max H. Bathe, grandparents of the infant, immediately following the church ceremonies. Barbecued turkey and pork, varied side dishes and refreshments highlighted the celebrative dinner served to relatives and close friends of the family. Picture making, card games, and other entertainment made a gay party of the reception, which concluded with the serving of an ample lunch late in the afternoon.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Newbury, Mrs. Finis Burke and Mrs. Annie Carland of Houston; Clarence Holt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Schultz and son; Mrs. Emma Schultz, Mrs. Otto Bathe and Herbert Bathe of Burton; Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Levien, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Schoenberg and son and Alfred E. Hoppe of Carmine and Edgar Rummel of Ledbetter.

M/Sgt. Fred G. Schultz, currently stationed in San Antonio, will after Dec. 2, be assigned to 1258th Air Transport Service at Brookly, Alabama, to be joined there by his family.

Mrs. Bruno Risse of Caldwell was a Sunday guest of Mrs. G. H. Fritsche.
