

CELEBRATES 90TH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Mattie Wade, a Giddings Negro woman, known as aunt Mat, celebrated her 90th birthday Feb. 27.

Those who shared the party with her were as follows: her pastor, the Rev. S. L. Byairs of Lockhart, the members of the church, Isaac (Bud) Wade, his sister, Mrs. Rockie Nunn Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Davis, son and daughter, Helen Marie Davis, 4, who was the youngest at the party. Also attending were a friend, Mrs. Molcey Maxfield, relatives Mrs. Ida Wormley and daughter, Miss C. E. Wormley and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Palmer, a nephew and niece.

Aunt Mat wishes to thank Mrs. M. E. Woodfork for the service she rendered and Mrs. R. M. Moore, who made the snapshots.

The party closed with a fervent prayer by Aunt Mat, who is still active in church work.

Refreshments were enjoyed by all.

All her friends, both white and colored, wish her many more happy birthdays.
