

The Giddings News

September 2, 1932

Grandmother Wachsmann celebrated her 92nd birthday Sunday. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Buck Christian and daughter Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Joe Southernwood, all of Elgin; Geo. Southernwood, Adolf Zwernemann, Ben Bleberstein and family, Herman Bleberstein Sr., all of Giddings; Ernest, Charlie, and Otto Richter and sons from Thorndale, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Kluge, Arthur Kleschnick and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knobloch and daughter Lillie, Karl Birnbaum and family, Herbert Wachsmann and family, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wachsmann, Karl Riedel and family, all of Mannheim; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Marburger and son Franklin, Herman Bleberstein and family, Otto Schulz and family, all of Lincoln; Ad. Neutzler and family, Otto Neutzler and family, Charlie Neutzler and family, all of Burton. Everybody spent a pleasant day and enjoyed themselves.

As night came on and nearly all the family had gone to bed, five cars drove up. When we came out The Foerster Band serenaded with "Long Long Ago."

Ad. Wachsmann and family are thanking the guests for their presence and especially the Foerster Band for tuning in on Grandmother Wachsmann's 92nd birthday that night.

Reporter.