

The Giddings News

January 2, 1931

HIGH SCHOLARSHIP

Clarence Albers was here during the holidays visiting his former home and friends. He is an instructor in Chemistry in the department of pharmacy of the University of Texas, and has just been awarded the Phi Beta Kappa, which is recognition of attaining the highest scholarship. He majored in Chemistry. He is possibly the first Lee County person to be awarded such an honor, and the editor joins in extending congratulations.