

The Giddings News

August 28, 1931

Mrs. John Burtschell happened to a painful accident one afternoon last week. In attempting to drive an automobile into the garage, the high wind blew the door, and she held out her hand to prevent the door striking the car, and the door was blown shut so strong that her forearm was caught against the side of the car. Several stitches were taken.