Burttschell Makes All-Tournament Team at Thorndale

Howard Burttschell, Giddings High School basketball player, made the all-tournament team at the Thorndale tournament last week.

The selections were made by the officials of the tournament.

The Buffaloes lost in the finals to Taylor by a score of 44 to 40. Placke was the leading scorer in this game with 12 points with Burttschell a close second with 11 points.

Giddings won over Leander in the opening round by a score of 27 to 21, with Carlestone leading the attack with 7 points and Burttschell and Fariss each tallying six points.

In the second round Pflugerville fell before the Buffaloes with score 30 to 21 in favor of the Giddings quintet. Placke led the Buffaloes with 12 points in this game also, while Carlestone hit the loop for 8 and Namken for 6 points.
