

The Giddings News

September 2, 1932

MENINGITIS

J. M., Jr., the 19-year old boy of J. M. Clark (colored) was stricken with meningitis while working at Prairie View and was brought home. His condition is considered serious.