

Idalou FFA's Range and Pasture Team Qualifies for National Contest.

Paxton Hettler, Casey Furgeson, Keid Williams, and Jayc Waller qualified for the National Range and Pasture Contest which will be held in the Oklahoma City Area. The Team placed 1st in the Texas Tech Area Contest on April 10th which allowed them to advance to the State contest at Tarlton State University in Stephenville on April 22nd where they placed 4th in the State. This victory qualified the team to compete at the National Contest on May the 6th. Pictured above, from left, are State officer Kati Heinrich, Paxton Hettler, Casey Furgeson, Keid Williams, Jayc Waller and State officer Miles Van.