

The Giddings News

April 21, 1922

Henry Lehmann has purchased a motor hearse which will arrive within thirty days. It costs $2,700 and is equal to any that are found in the cities. He will build an addition to his store and provide an undertaking parlor. Giddings is gradually becoming citified.