

The Giddings News

August 25, 1922

An Accident

Sunday morning W. J. Mainus was driving on the Lincoln road and as he turned the corner at Otto Alber's farm his car took to the ditch. The road is good with a slight down grade and the turn is a sharp one. The car was damaged some and Mainus received a severe gash in the forehead.