

The Giddings News

March 3, 1950

MRS. E. E. SHIVERS of Lexington accepts a contribution of magazines from Fred Morris of Lexington for distribution to veterans at McCloskey Hospital at Temple. Mrs. Shivers, volunteer service worker for the Lee County Chapter of the American Red Cross, takes an active interest in such activities which are a part of the service program of the Lee County Chapter.

Offering a cash contribution for birthday gifts to hospitalized service men is Miss Doris Peebles of Lexington (right). Mrs. Shivers represents the Red Cross for Lee County in volunteer service. Her duties include entertainment and instruction service for hospitalized service men and veterans.