

PREUSS MARKET
CHANGES HANDS

Mr. Geo. Preuss, who for the past twenty-nine years has served the meat eating public has recently leased his market to Fritz Bage, who took charge of same last Monday, and will continue to operate at the same location.

Mr. Preuss having been continuously before the public for so long a time is widely acquainted and has a host of friends, both old and young throughout the county. He states that for the next three or four months he has no plans whatsoever other than to rest in general.
