

The Giddings News

April 24, 1931

Monroe Seelke who has been in California for nearly all of the past six years, visited here this week. He said he was glad to get back to Giddings but will return to California. He said quite a number of the former Lee County boys out there wanted to come with him.