

The Giddings News

November 23, 1923

Fred Simek of Dime Box was in town Friday marketing 10 bales of cotton. He renewed for the News and also paid for a new subscription to his son who is in the U. S. Navy. Fred made 14 bales of cotton this year and is making preparations for another crop next year, when he says he will be glad if he gets only 20 cents for the next crop.
