

The Giddings News

September 8, 1922

Building at Lincoln Sold

The brick store building at Lincoln which had been advertised in a sheriff's sale was sold Tuesday. The highest bidder was Judge J. H. Tate and the price was $500. He represented the parties holding notes against the building.