Cove's oldest resident, Edna Teinert, celebrated her 106th birthday on Sunday surrounded by friends and family.

A steady flow of people gathered at Stoney Brook Assisted Living Center to celebrate the vibrant centenarian. Kids, grandkids, nieces, nephews, cousins, great-grandkids, and great-great-grandkids visited the family matriarch. Teinert laughed and joked with everyone, clearly enjoying the festivities.

"This has just been an overwhelmingly good party. It's wonderful!" said Teinert. "I never believed I would be here this long. The good Lord has been good to me. He kept me in his care, and I have so many wonderful relatives."
