

The Giddings News

June 5, 1931

LARGE RATTLER KILLED

John Wagner, Rt. 4, brought a large rattle snake to town last Friday morning. He had killed it in his garden and it was a whopper with 9 buttons. It was a diamond rattler and looked like a Yegua bottom snake, which had probably drifted upland. He had just missed it with his plow when he found it.