

The Giddings News

August 12, 1932

BLUE NEWS

The heavy wind and rain which struck this section late Saturday and lasted through Sunday did much damage to cotton that was open. Several farmers from Blue and Knobbs report losing one or two bales being blown out by the wind and damaged by the rain. It was of great benefit to the sweet potatoes as they were needing rain badly.

The rain will help pastures and put out some stock water in places. It amounted to about 2 inches.