

The Giddings News

April 28, 1950

WMS Hrs Social

The members of the Women's Missionary Society together with their families enjoyed an ice cream social last Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kuhn. After a short business meeting, the members presented Mrs. A. T. Kluge with a water pitcher set in honor of her birthday anniversary.

Those enjoying the social were Messrs. and Mesdames L. C. Fuchs and son, A. E. Keilers and son, Albert Mueller and son, Elmo Noak and daughter, Hy. Boemer, Julius Jaster, W. E. Kuhn, A. T. Kluge and son, Ned Perkins; also Mrs. Emil Eichler, and Mrs. M. L. Zwernemann and sons.

4-H Club Meets

The Carmine 4-H Club girls journeyed to Round Top on Tuesday, April 18, for their dress revue. They were accompanied by their sponsor, Miss Christine Behrend.

Several of the girls scored above 90 so they also took part in the county dress revue at La Grange last Saturday.

The girls express thanks to the Walhalla Home Demonstration Club for the handkerchiefs they presented to the girls.

Decoration Services Here

Decoration services will be held at the Carmine Cemetery on Sunday, May 7, starting at 10 a. m. There will be no church services that day.

Personals

Mrs. Lydia Hoch of Dallas was a recent visitor here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Goldsmith and son of Houston spent Saturday here with Miss Norma Bauer.

Leroy Berger of Houston spent the week-end here with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hoppe and family and Mrs. E. W. Hoppe were Austin visitors last Friday.

Mrs. Walter Albers of Houston spent several days here in the Alvin Albers home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Jacob and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sanders and son attended a Crosley dealers convention and banquet at Bryan last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. W. G. Neese, Miss Violet Hoermann and Mrs. Theo. Plattou spent Sunday with relatives in Pflugerville.

Those from Houston spending the week-end here with their parents were Mr. and Mrs. Kervin Jacob and Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Elbef and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gruchalla and son, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hartmann and son, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Eilers and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Fincher, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Manske and son.

Mr. and Mrs. John Watson of Burton and Tom Watson of Texas City spent Sunday in the W. J. Neese home.

Mrs. Henry Hoermann is spending several days in Brenham.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Birke and Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Noak of Giddings spent Thursday evening here with Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Noak and Jean.

Mrs. Lina Ullrich observed her 7th birthday anniversary on April 16 with a host of relatives and friends present.

A. C. Miller Jr. of Texas University spent the week-end here with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Fuchs, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. F. Doerr Sr., and Mrs. Lee H. Adams of here and Durwood L. Fuchs of Giddings were Sunday visitors with relatives in Taylor.