

The Giddings News

May 30, 1924

Tanglewood News

Another cold wind from the north blew Saturday and Sunday night a big rain fell. The farmers are busy today (Tuesday) but the ground is very wet.

There is some cotton to be planted, but most every one is chopping cotton.

Corn is late, but in general, it is good.

The berry crop was good, but it is about gone.

We are glad to report Bruce Cherry and little Orrin Purser, who have had pneumonia, able to be out again.

Hobson Reat, Jr. has whooping cough which is serving him badly.

Visitors from Rockdale, Buckholts, Giddings, Lexington and other places were with us at the cemetery working last Thursday. All work that was needed was not completed, so we shall meet again soon to finish it up.