

Lois Arndt, Douglas Holvorsen of Chicago Exchange Vows at Serbin Church

St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Serbin, Texas was the scene of the wedding of Miss Lois Arndt of Chicago, daughter of Rev and Mrs. A. Arndt of Serbin, to Douglas Halvorsen of Chicago, son of Mrs. L. C. Halvorsen of Chicago. The church was beautifully decorated with white mums, fern and candelabra. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the bride's father, the Rev. A. Arndt. Music was provided by Mrs. Einer Engebretson of Chicago, soloist, and Mrs. Raymond Banke of Austin, organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white satin and chantilly lace. It was styled with long sleeves and a yoke of chantilly lace trimmed with seed pearls. Her full length skirt fell into a train and was enhanced with a scalloped pannel of chantilly lace on each side. Her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a fitted cap of smocked illusion and seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white roses and lily of the valley.

Maid of honor was Mary Beth Arndt of Tempel, and bridesmaids were Mrs. John Boerger and Miss Joyce Ann Gruetzner of Giddings. Miss Mary Enge-bretson of Chicago was junior bridesmaid. The maid of honor and the bridesmaids wore identical gowns of turquoise taffeta styled with fitted bodice, short sleeves, covered button trim and full flared skirts. They wore smocked caps of turquoise illusion trimmed with white rhinestones, and nylon net mits. Their bouquets were of net mits. Their bouquets were of American beauty roses. The junior bridesmaid wore a gown of American beauty taffeta and carried white carnations.

Einar Engebretson of Chicago was best man. Groomsmen were James Arndt of Huntsville and William Arndt of Giddings.

The bride's mother wore a dress of royal blue crepe and chantilly lace and the groom's mother wore burgundy chantilly lace. The groom's grandmother was dressed in royal blue crepe, trimmed with rhinestones. Their corsages were of white roses.

A reception was held in St. Paul's Lutheran School. The bride's table, laid with a lace table cloth, was decorated with white mums and white tapers. Members of the house party were Misses Helen Steglich, Grace Symm, Ruth Kappler and Ottilia Moerbe.

After a wedding trip to Austin, Houston and New Orleans the couple will make their home in Chicago, Ill. For her going away the bride wore a suit of beige faille with black accessories. Her corsage was of red rose buds.

The bride is a graduate of Wharton high school and Wharton Junior College. She has her degree from the University of Texas, and is at present on the faculty of Luther Institute of Chicago. The groom is a sales engineer of Fendral Products Corporation, and attends L. I. C.

Out of town guests included Mrs. L. C. Halvorsen, Mr. and Mrs. Einer Engebretson and children John and Mary, all of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Thorland of Oak Park, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Felder and La Rue and Mrs. Erwin Bullar of Wharton and Mrs. John Boerger and children Charles and Mark of Wharton; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arndt of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Banke of Austin, Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Wiederaenders and Anna Louise of Smithville.
