Malke — Bamsch Wedding

Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at St. Pauls Lutheran Church at Serbin Rev. Herman Schmidt united in holy wedlock Miss Edna Malke and Edgar Bamsch of Walburg.

The bride, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Malke, was prettily dressed in white satin made along princess lines and carried a bouquet of white roses, fern and lillies of the valley. Her veil was caught up into a crown of tiny seed pearls, flowing out into a train. She was attended by her youngest sister, Miss Lorine, as maid of honor, dressed in peach satin with matching accessories. Little Frances Krause, dressed in blue taffeta scattered flower petals in the path of the couple as they marched down the church aisle, where the bride was baptized and also confirmed while Prof. L. O. Kasper at the organ played softly.

The brides' maids were: Misses Hattie Sohns, Wilma and Lorine Bamsch, and Doris Biar, dressed in rose, yellow, lavender and green taffeta floor length gowns.

The groom, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bamsch of Walburg, wore blue and was attended by Bennie Kelm, Rubin Miller, Louis Malke, and Otto Biar, Jr.

Mr. Willie Malke and Walter Bamsch served as toastmasters.

From the church the wedding party repaired to the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Malke, where a juicy barbecue supper with all the trimmings awaited them. The night was enjoyed by the singing of many beautiful church hymns with Prof. L. O. Kasper at the organ.

The couple received many beautiful gifts and they have the best wishes of their many friends for a happy wedded life.
