BEISTR—ISELT NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED

Miss Olga Beisert, daughter of Mrs. Selma Beisert, became the bride of Gus Iselt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Iselt, at 6 p. m. Sunday at the Loebau Christ Lutheran Church, the Rev. H. Hartfield officiating. Mr. Gerhard Kasper, uncle of the bride, played the wedding music.

Miss Hattie Iselt, sister of the groom served the bride as maid of honor and wore a floor length frock of wine moire taffeta. Her bouquet was pink roses and fern. Arthur Knippa was best man. Bridesmaids were Misses Beatrice and Hildegard Knippa and were dressed in royal blue moire taffeta made floor length, and they carried bouquets of pink roses and fern. Groomsmen were Edwin Mickhan and Henry Iselt. Ushers were Herbert Iselt, brother of the groom, and Albert Beisert, brother of the bride.

The bride's gown was of white panne satin made floor length and her veil of illusion fell into a long train. She carried a bouquet of white roses and fern tied with white satin ribbon and long streamers. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's mother. The wedding cake embossed in white roses, with a miniature bride and groom on top, was in the center of the table, white and pink roses at either end. They will make their home with the groom's parents at Loebau.
