Schmidt-Blasig

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Paul's Lutheran church Tuesday, July 1, at four o'clock when Miss Anna Schmidt became the bride of Rev. Carl Blasig. Rev. Herman Schmidt, father of the bride, performed the nuptials which were the impressive double ring ceremony. In his address preceding the ceremony, Rev. Schmidt urged the bridal couple to take Christ with them into their home in order to enjoy the true and lasting happiness along their marital path.

The bride wore a charming gown of soft white Georgette crepe, trimmed with silk lace. Her tulle veil was held in place by a crown of lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of roses and lilies. Miss Ruth Schmidt, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor, while the groom was attended by his brother, John Blasig. Little Misses Amanda Blasig and Marie Schroeder acted as flower girls, and Grace Kasper as ring bearer.

The bride is a graduate of the State University of Iowa and during the past year she was head of the history department in the New Braunfels high school. The groom was educated at St. John's College (Winfield, Kan.), Concordia Theological Seminary (St. Louis) and the University of Chicago.

Rev. and Mrs. Blasig will make their home at Brady where he is pastor. The News joins the many friends of the happy couple in wishing them a long life of joy and usefulness.
