

OBSERVE TWENTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brade of near Fedor were very pleasantly surprised on their 20th wedding anniversary Saturday night, October 29 by their children.

Those present for this happy occasion were: Their children, Gilbert, Bernice, Erna, Monroe, Elwood, Gladys and Eldor; Mr. and Mrs. George Brade and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brade of Giddings, Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Winkler and daughters Edna and Ruby; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Winkler and family, Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Winkler and son; Mr. and Mrs. Willie Pillack and family, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Winkler and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Winkler, all of Fedor; Mr. and Mrs. Alwin Kruemcke of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kunkel, Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Fischer, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Glona and family of Paige., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zschech and daughters Dolores and Marilyn, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert (Shorty) Exner, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Knobloch, Herman Rudolph and Mildred, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Briggs and daughter, Dick Brade, Grandmother Brade, Mr. and Mrs. Gerh. Kilian and daughters, Gertrude and Irene, all of Lincoln. Herbert Zoch, Lorine Namken, Alfred Zoch, Vernal Bieberstein, Karlie Kalbas, Willie and Gilbert Mittasch, Ted and LeRoy Exner, Royce Kruemcke, Angeline Mitschke, Earl Symmank, Francis Mutschink, "The Village Play Boys", Mrs. Alfred Gruetzner and son, Ruth Schultz, Grace Beisert, Tessie Lee Beisert, Robert Namken, George Kieschnick, Robert Foerster, Wilbert Iselt, Marvin Gruetzner, Robert Beisert, Milton Friedrich, Bernice Bittner, Jack Schneider and other young folks whose names we may have overlooked.

"The Village Playboys" furnished the music for the evening which was greatly enjoyed by everyone present.

Lunch consisting of sandwiches, cakes, coffee-cake, cookies and coffee was served to the guests at a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Brade received many nice and useful gifts for which they are very thankful.

At a late hour everyone departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brade many more happy anniversaries.

— Submitted by —
Miss Gertrude Kilian.