

Woodward-Carlyle Vows Are Spoken

The marriage of Miss Dora Elizabeth Woodward to James McLean Carlyle was recently solemnized in a semi-formal double ring ceremony in the Sinton Presbyterian Church with the Rev. G. B. Strickler of Taft officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Andy Woodward of Sinton and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Woodward of the W-Bar Ranch near Lexington. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carlyle of Troup.

The altar of the church was decorated with basket arrangements of candytuft and Valentine red carnations. On a background of greenery were displayed hearts of candytuft and red carnations.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of candlelight lace and tulle over bridal satin. The bodice of lace was designed with a softly draped yoke of tulle to give an off-the-shoulder effect. The bouffant skirt, worn over hoops and crinoline, was accented by two tiers of tulle edged in matching lace with lace panels dipping to the floor on both sides. The satin extended to a full cathedral train.

A fingertip veil of candlelight imported illusion fell from Mary Queen of Scots half hat of lace studded with pearls and bordered with net ruching. She carried a white prayer book with a white orchid and stephanotis.

Miss Nancy Beth Edgar of Mercedes was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Bee Beattie of Nashville, Tenn., Miss Dorothy June Suttle of Goliad, and Miss Barbara Fenner of Sinton.

The attendants wore identical dresses of pink embroidered nylon net over taffeta. The strapless bodices were draped and worn with matching shrug jackets. The bouffant skirts peplums were edged in wide ruching.

Miss Carolyn Calloway of Marlow, Okla., sang, accompanied by Miss Martha Dawson of Houston. Sally Gordon and Mary Catherine Johnson lighted the candles.

J. B. Carlyle attended his son as best man. Groomsmen were E. A. Cox Jr. of Waco, G. R. Stewart of Dallas, and Aaron

Adams of Waco.

Immediately after the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table, covered with a cut-work cloth, was centered with a cut-glass bowl arrangement of flowers in Valentine colors. White tapers burned in candelabra.

Miss Janice Witherspoon presided at the bride's book. Miss Mary Clayton of Dallas and Mrs. Robert Joseph of Corpus Christi served.

For the wedding trip the bride wore a peach blossom pink suit of wool jersey and navy accessories. They will make their home at Waco where the groom is stationed with the U. S. Air Force.

Mrs. Carlyle is a graduate of Sinton High School and Southern Methodist University of Dallas. She is a member of Delta Gamma Sorority.

Her husband was graduated from Troup High School and from Southern Methodist University of Dallas. He is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity and Blue Key.
