Kruse-Childress

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized at Ledbetter Sunday afternoon when Miss Edna Kruse of Ledbetter and Dr. D. T. Childress of this place were united in matrimony. The church was decorated with ferns and chrysanthemums. The Altar was banked with fern. An ivy colored arch was in the center, from which was suspended a large white wedding bell which was showered with daisy chrysanthemums and fern. A large bowl of daisy chrysanthemums and white tapers in crystal candlesticks were on the piano.

While the guests awaited the coming of the bride the ushers George Childress of Cameron, brother of the groom, and H. M. Hewitt of Giddings took their places beside the altar, followed by Rev. Campbell of the Giddings Presbyterian church. Mrs. A. Kruse the matron of honor with a bouquet of pink rose and lace fern, then came in, followed by the flower girl Ruth Marie Kruse a niece of the bride. Meanwhile a solo "Until" was sung by Milton York, accompanied by Mrs. Orrin Bowers, who also played the processional and recessional.

The bride entered with her father and was met at the altar by the groom who entered with the best man, Dr. Arthur Kruse, a brother of the bride. The bride was lovely in a cranberry satin-striped crepe with accessories to match. Her bouquet was shell-pink sweetheart buds and lace fern.

A short and simple ceremony was soon over, after which they repaired to the home of the bride's parent's, and then soon departed by auto for Cameron and then to Dallas where they spent the week attending the meetings of the American Dental Association. They will return to Giddings and be at home after November 16 in the Ramsey residence.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome diamond-platinum bar pin. The bride gave Mrs. Kruse the maid of honor and Mrs. Bowers lovely white gold vanities. The groom gave emblematic cuff links to the best man and the ushers. The bride and groom were recipients of many useful and beautiful gifts.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kruse business man of Ledbetter while the groom is a young professional man of Giddings who has lived here only a few years but has established himself in a large circle of friends both in the business and social life. The News joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy life.
