PETERS—COOK NUPTIALS AT BRENHAM JULY FOURTH

A wedding of interest to many Giddings friends, the bride having been born here, was solemnized at the First Baptist church in Brenham at 7 o'clock on the evening of the fourth when Miss Lois Marie Peters, oldest daughter of Mr and Mrs A. J. Peters of Columbus, became the bride of Evin Lee Cook, of Houston, older son of Rev. and Mrs. Geo. N. Cook of Brenham.

The father of the groom performed the ceremony before a chancel space banked with fern and gladioli.

Just before the ceremony, Mrs. Jerry Hicks sang "Because," accompanied by Mrs. M. B. Holleman who also played the wedding marches.

The bride's sister, Miss Elizabeth Peters, was her only attendant and wore a beige sharkskin ensemble with harmonizing accessories. Her corsage was of Peruvian lilies.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was becomingly dressed in a viking blue redingote costume. Her tall turban and other accessories were white and she wore a corsage of white gardenias and ribbon.

Glenn Cook, brother of the groom, served his brother as best man. Burl Jordan of Waco was groomsman and William Warnash and Willie Hoting were ushers.

The mother of the bride wore navy sheer ensemble with pink accessories. The mother of the groom wore navy chiffon redingote with harmonizing accessories. Both wore corsages of pink carnations.

An informal reception was held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Geo. N. Cook for the bridal party and out-of-town guests immediately following the ceremony. The table, laid with a hand crocheted cloth, was centered with daisies and fern. Punch was served from a frozen punch bowl, with a variety of cookies. The living room was adorned with a profusion of pink hydrangeas and white phlox.

Immediately after the reception, the bride and groom left by auto for a short wedding trip after which they will be at home at 1341 Courtland, Houston.

The bride is a graduate of the Brenham high school and receiving her bachelor of arts degree from Baylor university in June. The groom is also a Brenham high school graduate received his bachelor of arts degree from Baylor university and his master of arts degree from Rice Institute. Both are associated with the Humble Oil Company of Houston.

Those from Giddings who attended were Mr. G. E. Kelly, grandfather of the bride, Mrs. W. A. Sikes, Mrs. R. A. Toler, Mrs. T. H. Miller, and daughter Molly Ann, Mr and Mrs. G. L. Kelly. Other out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mr and Mrs. A. J. Peters, daughter Margaret Ann, and son A. J. Jr. of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Reed of Burton, Mrs. Amanda Mauley, Mr and Mrs. L. J. Falgean and Carolyn of Bryan; Mr and Mrs. W. L. Williams, Mrs. B. L. Williams, Mrs. J. L. Mason of Navasota; Mr and Mrs. Reed Greenwood and children of Shiro; Mr and Mrs. E. D. Little of Houston; Billy Martin, Shorty Hillard and Burl Jordan of Waco; Mr and Mrs. Jerry Hicks of Bellville.
