Delores Davis Becomes Bride Of Glen Hill

Miss Delores Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight N. Davis of Giddings, was married to Glen Hill, son of Mrs. J. J. Hill of Giddings, on Saturday night, Sept. 16, in a double-ring, candle-light ceremony, officiated by the Rev. H. L. McLerran of the First Baptist Church in Giddings.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Dwight Davis.

She was attired in a grey suit with winter pink accessories, and she wore an orchid. The bride attended the Giddings High School a number of years. She graduated in the New Boston High School in New Boston, Texas, finishing there in 1947.

The bridegroom is stationed at Bergstrom Field at Austin.

Miss Lillie Hentschell of Giddings, attired in a navy blue suit with gold accessories, served as maid of honor. She had a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Walter Smithey of Giddings sang "Always."

Earl Hill, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Bruce Davis, brother of the bride, and Stanley Hill of Beaumont were ushers.

The mother of the bride wore grey with navy accessories and the mother of the bridegroom wore black.

The couple will make their home in Austin.
