

The Giddings Star
January 30, 1942

WEDDING BELLS AT FEDOR

A very pretty church wedding took place Sunday evening at 6:30 in Trinity Lutheran Church, at Fedor when Rev. A. F. Michalk, pastor of the church, spoke the words that made Mr. Clarence Michalk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Michalk of Dime Box, and Miss Ella Domann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Domann of the Fedor community man and wife. Under the strain of a wedding march played by Mr. Theo. Schroeder the bride, attended by her father and preceded by two pretty flower girls, Dolores Zschech and Laverne Michalk carrying baskets of confetti, and the groom, assisted by his brother Andrew, and by the attendants, the Misses Hildegard Domann, Elsie Handrick, Eunice Symank and Allyne Marburger, bridesmaids, and Messrs. Erwin Doman, Edwin Grundmann, Richard Melcher, and Herbert Michalk, grooms men.

The ushers were Mr. Herman Marburger and Mr. Herbert Domann.

Following the ceremony at the church about 100 guests betook themselves to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Domann, parents of the bride, where a sumptuous supper was served and enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Michalk were the recipients of many beautiful wedding gifts. They intend to make their home at present with the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Michalk.

Their many friends and relatives wish them the best of luck and happiness throughout their married life.

T.C.S.