SCHMIDT-DUROW NUPTIALS

A beautiful wedding was solemnized January 12th at 5 p. m. in Immanuel Lutheran church when Rudolph Schmidt of Houston formerly of Northrup, and Miss Gertrude Durow also of Houston, formerly of Giddings, were united in matrimony. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Herman Schmidt, pastor of St. Paul's church at Serbin, an uncle of the groom.

Prof. L. Groth played Lohengrin's wedding march. The groom and the best man, Martin H. Schmidt stood in waiting near the altar. Bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Durow and Miss Erna Schmidt. Maid of honor was Miss Eleanora Durow. Flower girl was Evelyn Durow. Mr. Martin Durow, brother of the bride, who gracefully led the bride to the side of the waiting groom.

The bride was dressed in white slipper satin dress with a train and wore a veil of silk marquisette fastened with a wreath of pearl flowers, and carried a bouquet of white carnation and wore a necklace of white pearl beads. The bridesmaid were dressed in pink satin carrying a bouquet of pink gladiolas and carnations. The flower girl wore a dress of green satin.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Esther Durow. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Durow Shirley Jean of Port Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Durow and Charles, Miss Ruth Durow, Mr. Herman Wilkenfeld, Miss Emma Dube of Houston, Miss Erna Schmidt of Austin, Rev. Berni Schmidt and family of Serbin, Prof. and Mrs. L. Groth, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Placke and family, Mr. Martin Placke, Miss Louise Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Lehman, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kasper and Clarence, Mrs. Walter Kasper all of Giddings. The groom's mother Mrs. Emma Schmidt, two sisters, and a brother could not be present on account of sickness.

They will make their home in Houston where the groom is employed. Both are members of Trinity Lutheran Church of Houston.
